WILLIAM DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

All the world over Easter is son of great rejoicing, as everybegins to cast off the dingiof winter and nature herself eshibits the spirit of resurrection.

The Easter festival of our fore athers covers a period of fifteen The week beginning with Stater Sunday was almost given over to sport and games and geners! merry making.

Easter is a moveable festival, it always the first Sunday after the fall moon which happens upon or man after the twenty-first day of March; and if the full moon happens upon a Sunday, Easter day is the Sunday following.

The sacred festival of Easter has deen aperopriately termed "the queen of feativals." It has been observed from the foundation of the Christian religion, and is colobrated in every part of the Christian world with great selemnity and devotion.

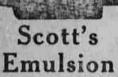

There are many superstitions souncited with Easter Sunday which are significant of the sesson, and are almost as importative as laws. One of these is the necessity of havthe coming year. Hence the Past-apace, engaged in selling their lambs There is no family so poor as not to break the long lenter fast with an Easter lamb, the value of which is about a dollar, and a veritiable massacre of the innocents is going on. It is late on Saturday that the real Easter celebration take place.

An immense crowd fills all the approaches to the cathedral and such clear. Without, a raised platform has been erected and decorated with vergreens.

In the cathedral the royal priness, the ministers of state and the high functionaries of the kingdom ssemble to attend the midnight service. As the hour of midnight approaches, the metropolitan with his assistants, preceded by the cross and banners, advance with lighted tapers The various notabilities light their tapers from that of the arch bishop, and so the sacred fire is communicated to the crowd.
